1:00 P.M.	WELCOME AND BRIEF OPENING REMARKS – MARK STOMBAUGH, CEcD, EDFP - MEDC President
1:15 – 4:30 P.M.	KICK-OFF SPEAKER: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND THE MULTIGENERATIONAL WORKFORCE; PLANNING FOR SUCCESS Presenter: DR. MARK TAYLOR Successful economic and community development will require awareness of multiple fluid demographic factors, including the generational issues and dynamics in the workforce of today, and farther into the 21st Century. Understanding typical generational values, traits, preferences and styles can improve economic and community planning, as well as workplace recruitment, worker and workplace effectiveness, harmony and employee satisfaction and retention. Understanding generational trends can improve planning for, developing and maintaining an effective economic environment. This workshop will address the generational issues and dynamics in the workplace with specific, applicable suggestions for economic and community development.
5:30 P.M.	RECEPTION – The Roof (We will be inside on the top floor of the hotel but can also enjoy the skyline of Columbia from the outdoor venue) Bring your drink tickets...
6:30 P.M.	“DUTCH TREAT” GROUP DINING Group Dining is “Dutch Treat” – Your coordinator will not be your “host” but will make reservations and help arrange carpooling. Take advantage of this opportunity to experience a fun night and meet some colleagues from across the state. To join the fun, sign up at the MEDC registration desk.
